CONVENIENCE YOU CAN COUNT ON

The contemporary and stylish, built-in double wall oven is more than just beautiful and functional, it is an absolute must-have for home entertaining. The Sharp SWB3062GS built-in double wall oven features edge-to-edge black glass and stainless steel design with an all-new premium, Soft-Close Door that closes quietly and prevents slamming. Two, 5.0 cu ft. ovens maximize cooking capacity and lets you cook two different courses, at two different temperatures, all at the same time.

This 5.0 cu. ft. built-in double wall oven uses True European Convection to cook evenly and heat efficiently. The 8 pass broil element provides edge-to-edge performance. The 6 Pass hidden bake element and sculpted floor of the modern, cobalt blue porcelain interior make cleanup a breeze. Touch glass controls and a large LCD display make the control panel easy to see and operate. Six sculpted rack positions on both the Upper and Lower ovens create a versatile cooking space. The included glide-rack gracefully handles even your heaviest cookware smoothly and evenly to help prevent accidental spills.

Keep your treasured, family recipes just the way they are! Our Convection Conversion feature will automatically convert the time and temperature to optimize your recipes for this state of the art, True European Convection Wall Oven.

With decades of experience designing innovative home appliances, it's easy to see why millions of home cooks trust Sharp.

The 8-pass broil element and temperature probe give you precise control.[1]

The included glide-rack allows for removing even the heaviest dishes

The hidden bake element and sculpted floor of the modern, cobalt blue porcelain interior makes cleanup a breeze.

The dedicated heating element and fan of our True European Convection cooks more evenly than conventional ovens.
